

DTU - Marching towards Excellence

1. Curriculum innovation and upgraded curriculum introduced in all new UG / PG programs to meet the world quality & industry standards.
2. Smart Classrooms equipped with ICT facilities, recruitment of 93 teaching faculty has begun.
3. Commissioned Knowledge and Technology Incubation Unit as part of the Knowledge Park.
4. Summer internship opportunities for UG and PG Students.
5. Collaborations with industry leaders in technology:
 - a. MoU with Intellectual Ventures for strengthening IPR and support for ideas for technology incubation.
 - b. MoU with NPL for strengthening the synergy between Science and Engineering and for introduction of research intensive industry relevant master's and doctoral research.
 - c. MoU with the Groupe des Ecoles des Mines (GEM), France for academic and research collaboration.
 - d. MoU with the world's top Aeronautics Company namely Lockheed Martin Corporation for the development of Next Generation Aircraft Systems.
 - e. Freescale Semiconductor India Pvt. Ltd., a major Semiconductor Design Company offered to setup Freescale Systems Laboratory in DTU.
 - f. Microsoft (India) support for development of Robotics Curriculum and its delivery at DTU. Microsoft donated 3000 free passwords to enable every student and faculty of DTU to use Microsoft Dream Spark Package and other Software.

Student achievements July – Feb 2010

- a. Ms. Shweta Chauhan - Mondialogo Engineering Award 2009 in Germany , international competition ,Ms. Shravanti Joshi and Shri. Anoop Ramakrishna - awarded International Telecom Union Award in Geneva.
- b. Shri. Ankur Garg, Environmental Engineering 2009 - Shell Centenary Chevening Scholar, for studies at University of Cambridge for Master's of Philosophy in Technology Policy at the Church Business School of Cambridge MIT Institute.
- c. Ms. Swati Rawal, Research Scholar in the Applied Physics received Best Research Paper Award
- d. In addition, the IEEE Branch of DTU is being made the mentor of 12 IEEE Student Chapters / Branches in India including the IEEE student branch of BITS Pilani.

“Excellence is not an accident but a sustained march on pathways of excellence with a vision backed by fullest dedication and unconditional commitment.”

Appeal to the students and parents

DTU (formerly DCE) authorities appeal to students and parents to respect the Academic Calendar and motivate students to join classes from Monday, March 22, 2010 as it is in the larger interest of student community